

Do you need to ensure consistency in AfL strategies and Improve the effectiveness of teacher feedback

How can you ensure that teachers' marking helps pupils to understand what they need to do to improve their work?

Embedding AfL, Self & Peer Assessment. Quality feedback and Making Marking Count	The Great House Hotel and Restaurant 8 High Street, Laleston, Bridgend, CF32 0HP Choose a date: 11th July 2017 9:30 – 3:30 28th September 2017 9:30 – 3:30	£170 per delegate. Lunch and refreshments provided.
---	---	--

This workshop will ensure that staff understand and can apply the principles of AfL ensuring that marking feeds back effectively leading to action and immediate improvement in learners work. Delegates will have clear examples of effective marking and AfL in action.

The workshop incorporates the latest curriculum developments and will enable delegates to:

- + ensure greater consistency in assessment for learning strategies
- + have access to a bank of AfL strategies and develop a team coaching approach
- + ensure marking is time effective and leads to immediate improvement in learners work
- + develop understanding of high quality, effective marking - work smarter not harder
- + ensure that the quality of written feedback helps pupils to improve their work
- + explicitly teach quality self and peer assessment strategies
- + promote metacognition in learners
- + engage learners with the quality of their work and help them reflect on how to improve it
- + leave with a bank of ready to use resources to develop progressive self and peer assessment from Nursey to Year 6
- + have access to a bank of resources to support assessment and marking

For further details contact:

Rachel@CullyEducation.co.uk

Tel: 01495 687449

Excellent. The most useful part was the AfL table ideas and thinking about a whole school approach.

Penygraig Infants

Excellent. Introducing new ideas for AfL in the classroom to provide pupils with the required tools.

Coed Hirwaun Primary

Do you need to ensure consistency in AfL strategies and Improve the effectiveness of teacher feedback

How can you ensure that teachers' marking helps pupils to understand what they need to do to improve their work?

Embedding AfL, Self & Peer Assessment. Quality feedback and Making Marking Count	Beaufort Park Hotel Mold, Flintshire CH7 6RQ Choose a date: 13th July 2017 9:30 – 3:30 25th September 2017 9:30 – 3:30	£170 per delegate. Lunch and refreshments provided.
---	---	--

This workshop will ensure that staff understand and can apply the principles of AfL ensuring that marking feeds back effectively leading to action and immediate improvement in learners work. Delegates will have clear examples of effective marking and AfL in action.

The workshop incorporates the latest curriculum developments and will enable delegates to:

- + ensure greater consistency in assessment for learning strategies
- + have access to a bank of AfL strategies and develop a team coaching approach
- + ensure marking is time effective and leads to immediate improvement in learners work
- + develop understanding of high quality, effective marking - work smarter not harder
- + ensure that the quality of written feedback helps pupils to improve their work
- + explicitly teach quality self and peer assessment strategies
- + promote metacognition in learners
- + engage learners with the quality of their work and help them reflect on how to improve it
- + leave with a bank of ready to use resources to develop progressive self and peer assessment from Nursey to Year 6
- + have access to a bank of resources to support assessment and marking

For further details contact:

Rachel@CullyEducation.co.uk

Tel: 01495 687449

Excellent. Introducing new ideas for AfL in the classroom to provide pupils with the required tools.

Coed Hirwaun Primary

'Excellent. The most useful part was the AfL table ideas and thinking about a whole school approach.

Penygraig Infants